A BIG CLAIM IN FIRE COURT

City Mill Company Wants Fifty One Thousand Dollars for Fire Loss.

The claim of the City Mill Company, for $51,000, was heard yesterday by the court of fire commissioners. There are a large number of separate items and the hearing occupied all day.

There was one funny incident yesterday; a claimant had listed ten pounds of sawdust, for which he wanted several dollars. On examination it was found that the item should have read "solder."

The commissioners now have the $4,000 needed to complete their work on deposit subject to their drafts, and there is no further fear now but that the adjustment of claims will be carried on to completion.
